Join us for a journey to Ottawa, the nation's capital, during the enchanting tulip time. The tradition of Ottawa's magnificent bloom began with the historic royal gift of tulips by Queen Juliana of the Netherlands in 1945. Experience the beauty of impressive tulip displays, including Commissioners Park alongside Dow's Lake - one of the most popular spots to enjoy the beautiful displays. We will stay at the historic Lord Elgin Hotel, just steps away from downtown. We've included lots of activities to fill your time including a city tour, RCMP Stables, a dinner show at Oh Canada Eh!, a guided tour of Rideau Hall, the Diefenbunker Museum, and much more! Don't miss your chance to celebrate Ottawa's love affair with tulips! Please note that this is an active tour and involves some walking tours that would be not suitable for those with mobility constraints.
